Regis University Library – Database Access Policy

Off-campus access to Regis Library licensed databases is limited to currently enrolled students and currently employed faculty and staff. Alumni, inactive students and community members have access to most licensed databases from the reference area of Dayton Memorial Library with a guest login from the reference desk. Individual database licenses may further restrict access to specific Regis University affiliated groups.

February 2012