Citing Online Sources in AMA Format

General Information for References Page

- References pages are double spaced with no extra spacing between entries.
- The word References is left aligned and bold to title the page.
- Entries are listed and numbered in the order they were referenced in the paper.
- Specific abbreviations are required for journal titles; use the NLM Catalog to find abbreviations.

An Article with a DOI (with continuous pagination through a volume)

An Article with no DOI (with new pagination in each issue)

An Article with no DOI (with continuous pagination through a volume)

An Online Book

Web Sites

Online Government Publications

Citing Print Sources in AMA Format

General Information for References Page

- References pages are double spaced with no extra spacing between entries.
- The word References is left aligned and bold to title the page.
- Entries are listed and numbered in the order they were referenced in the paper.
- Specific abbreviations are required for journal titles; use the NLM Catalog to find abbreviations.

Books

Edited Books

Book Chapters

Journal Articles (with continuous pagination throughout a volume)

Journal Articles (with new pagination in each issue)

Letters to the Editor

Government Publications
