

A full list of accounting resources available from the Regis Library can be found on the following subject guide: <http://libguides.regis.edu/accounting>

Accounting Code

FASB Accounting Standards Codification

FASB ASC is designed to simplify user access to all U.S. GAAP by presenting the authoritative literature in an organized structure of about 90 topics. It also includes relevant portions of S.E.C. guidance. Browse by topic or search by keyword. A username and password is required and will be provided by instructors in classes where FASB is used. Students may also register for free Basic View access at <https://asc.fasb.org/login>.

Accounting Guides

GAAP Guide

GAAP analyzes accounting principles, applies them to various situations and industries, and cross-references the relevant FASB ASC section. The GAAP Library is within the CCH Internet Tax Research database under "Accounting and Auditing."

AICPA Accounting and Auditing Literature

In the AICPA core library are Accounting Trends & Techniques, AICPA Audit and Accounting Guides, and the AICPA Professional Standards. To access the AICPA audit and accounting material, new Regis students must first go to www.cpa2biz.com and choose Sign-in / New User / Non-AICPA Member to register and create a log-in. In a new window, log in to this site. Click on My Subscriptions at the top. Click on the tab My Online Publications. AICPA Core Library appears. From here access AICPA Audit & Accounting Literature: Accounting Trends & Techniques, Professional Standards, Technical Practice Aids, and more. Sign out at end.

Articles

Business Source Complete

The Business Source Complete database indexes many business and accounting journals, as well as providing Company Profiles, SWOT Analyses, and Industry Profiles. It has full-text articles from thousands of academic journals, trade publications and general news magazines. Other publication types include Country Reports, Market Research Reports, and monographs.

Lexis-Nexis Academic

This special database has full-text news sources, federal and state court decisions, law reviews, company financial "dossiers," business and trade news, and accounting.

Legal Trac

This is a good source for indexed articles from major law reviews, legal newspapers, and bar association journals.

Academic Search Premier

With a greater focus in the social sciences and humanities, the Academic Search Premier database is a good source for articles in areas related to public policy, ethical issues, and societal impacts.

Wall Street Journal

Full-text articles on business matters of the day since 1984.

Print Books and E-books

Lumen Catalog

Search our catalog for print and electronic books, journals, media, and government publications. Find it on our home page or within the Subject Research Guide for Accounting & Taxation under the “books” tab.

Books 24x7

Search through thousands of electronic books within this database. It's coverage of business, management, finance, and IT is current and complete. Each e-book title is also cataloged in Lumen with a link to Books 24x7.

Prospector Catalog

This research tool opens up other libraries to you. One search in this union catalog turns up book holdings available to you from libraries throughout Colorado and Missouri. The “Request This Item” link will deliver the specified print book here for your use.

Corporate Financials & Industry Numbers

Mergent Online

Here in detail are public companies' balance sheets, income statements, cash flow reports, ratios, competitors, officers and directors. Menu options under the Company Analysis List feature allow you to generate a company comparison report against a select group of peers or to create a multiple company report. Mergent also provides access to quarterly and annual SEC filings. Reports and filing statements can be downloaded as Word, PDF, HTML, or CSV files.

U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission

<http://www.sec.gov/>

This government web site is the source for all required filings of companies traded on U.S. exchanges. The web site is updated daily.

Standard & Poor's NetAdvantage

S&P NetAdvantage has insightful industry surveys, company profiles, annual reports, stock reports, financials, economic news, mutual fund coverage, and a weekly newsletter on the stock market.

Key Business Ratios

KBR provides industry ratios searchable by SIC and NAICS classification codes. The Key Business Ratios database provides industry overviews and analysis, too. Additional reference sources for industry ratios are in print: RMA Annual Statement Studies and The Almanac of Business and Industrial Financial Ratios.

Bizminer

This generates industry reports on financials for 5,000 lines of business. Its Competitive Market Analyzer examines 900 industries down to the zip code level. It also has Micro Market reports.

Reference help is available 7 days a week in person, or at 303.458.4031, or via e-mail library@regis.edu