

Off-campus access to Regis Library licensed databases is limited to currently enrolled students and currently employed faculty and staff. Alumni, inactive students, and community members may access most licensed databases while on-site at Dayton Memorial Library. Some individual database licenses may further restrict on-site access to specific Regis University affiliated groups. Alumni, inactive students, and community members should speak to the staff at the circulation desk for assistance logging in to a computer.

Created February 2012
Last revised March 2022